2. http://twelvershia.net (refutations of shia arguments, also has a forum.twelvershia.net where you can ask about issues) (the new articles after 2017 compare hadith sciences) by Sunna Discourse

3. http://mahajjah.com (the most famous contemporary & classical books translated, the search function allows to search within a book) (they have a book comparing science of hadith and another one on narrator criticism, they also have the best and only book available on the broken rib fairytale THE FABLE OF THE ATTACK ON FATIMAH AND HER MISCARRIAGE —AN ACADEMIC ANALYSIS Not only will you learn why the event of the broken rib is a fable, but you will also master some of the basics of Shia Hadith science. Unfortunately, the English version is still under construction but you can read what has been translated so far . The book discusses the work of both Murtadha AlAmiliee and the ones that refute him (including Muhammad AlHussaini). So it is not biased. If you know Arabic, I highly recommend you watch the commentary of سيد مازن (in the live section of YouTube), instead of reading the book, because of how much more info you would learn from him. this is my fav chapter because it exposes a lot how shias fabricate books and authors https://mahajjah.com/3-narration-from-dalail-al-imamah/)
